SEVENTH FIRST FRIDAY PLANNED

You are invited to the seventh presentation of First Friday Research Seminars on Deafness sponsored by the Division of Research and Evaluation, Model Secondary School for the Deaf. The topic for this seminar, which will be held in the MSSD Orientation Room at 3:15 on Friday, June 16, will be, "Research at Gallaudet College - Future Directions." The speaker will be Dr. Doin Hicks.

If you are interested in attending please submit your reservations by Wednesday, June 14, by calling ext. 688 or 689.

SPECIAL PROGRAM ON SPAIN TO BE HELD AT THE TEXTILE MUSEUM

The Textile Museum, located at 2320 S Street, NW, will be having an exhibition, Stars of Spain, and a special movie on Spain on June 17th. The movie, Al-Andalus, is a beautiful visual summary of the Islamic presence in Spain from 710 - 1092. Dazzling views of the Alhambra, the 14th century Muslim palace in Granada are included. Artistic, cultural and political contributions are portrayed, and their impact on the rest of Europe is also discussed. Al-Andalus presents the context in which the silks and carpets in the exhibition, Stars of Spain, were woven.

The movie will be shown at 10:30 a.m. with a tour at 11:00 a.m.; there will be a second showing of the film at 12:15. For more information call 677-0441 (voice).

AMONG OURSELVES

--Doin Hicks has been named President-elect of the Conference of Executives of American Schools for the Deaf (CEASD). He will assume office in July 1980.
--Father Rudy Gawlik and Della and Max Fitz-Gerald presented a workshop on Family and Sexual Communication for the Laurelville Mennonite Church Center on May 27, 28 and 29.
--The United States Wrestling Federation has decided to designate one wall of its Hall of Fame, located in Stillwater, Oklahoma, to honor Gold Medal Winners from the World Games for the Deaf. Marty Willigan is one of the four WGD gold medalists. Congratulations, Marty!
--Major captioning centers throughout the U.S. and Canada joined together for the first conference on captioning from June 1 - 3 at NTID. The conference title was "Captioning: Shared Perspectives."
Don Torr, Sandy White, Carol Moy and Bill Pugin represented Gallaudet at the meetings.
--Jack Gannon was the Commencement Speaker for the Kentucky School for the Deaf in Danville, Kentucky, on June 2, 1978.
--Wylie Meyers, better known on campus as Spider, has completed a portrait of the ever famous Spiderman on the fence surrounding the construction site of KDES. He tells me that he will next work on a portrait of the Hulk, another super-hero of the younger generation. If you have not had an opportunity to see this you should treat yourself to a drive by Kendall.
